Momentum Healthware Announces CEO Appointment Glenn Tinkler Named President and CEO

Winnipeg, Manitoba, April 17, 2008 – Momentum Healthware, Inc. an industry-leading developer of health informatics solutions in Canada and the U.S., today announced that its Board of Directors has appointed Glenn Tinkler to serve as the company's President and CEO. He will succeed Dan Malmstrom, whose contract terminated in January, 2008.

Glenn Tinkler, most recently held the position of Senior Vice-President of North American Sales and Marketing for Momentum. Prior to joining Momentum, Mr. Tinkler served as the General Manager of IBM Manitoba for 31 years, and has also served in various senior executive roles for U.S., European and Canadian health informatics companies.

"We have great confidence in Glenn's leadership", says Dave Wattling, Chairman of Momentum Healthware's Board of Directors. "Glenn is a proven executive, with a diverse blend of credentials and experience that will enable us to achieve our strategic and operational goals. We are very excited about the future growth possibilities that his experience and vision bring to Momentum."

"I am looking forward to the challenge", says Mr. Tinkler, "of building on Momentum's success and positioning the Company as a world-class health informatics organization."
